STUDENT LIFE

I'VE BEEN GOING A LONG TIME NOW
ALONG THE WAY I'VE LEARNED SOME THINGS.
YOU HAVE TO MAKE THE GOOD TIMES YOURSELF
TAKE THE LITTLE TIMES
AND MAKE THEM INTO BIG TIMES
AND SAVE THE TIMES THAT ARE ALL RIGHT
FOR THE ONES THAT AREN'T SO GOOD.

Super Summer of '72 provides adventures around the world for many students

The Summer of '72 proved to be an exciting summer for most Juniors and Seniors. Many students attended institutes and traveled to other countries.

Senior Jim Thorstad spent his summer as an exchange student in Iran. Jim learned many facts about the way Asian people live.

Senior Kathy Phares spent her summer as an exchange student in Argentina, where she had many experiences with the South American way of living.

The Varsity Cheerleading squad of Senior Betty Hamilton, (Captain); Sue Appel and Gwen Schneckenburger; and Juniors Linda Ehrick, Bonnie Beck, and Judy Kunst won national honor at cheerleading camp.

Senior Emily Swenson toured Sweden, Norway, and Denmark, while Junior Dave Sawyer went to Spain and Portugal.

Sponsored by the Spanish Club to study in Mexico were Seniors Steve Walker, Jan Heying, Pat Hyre, Jim Ryan, and Maria Raffin; and Juniors Cindy Oates and Mary Paulson. The Club also sponsored Junior Luis Cuellar on a trip to Spain to study that country and its customs.

Hoosier Girls State at IU was attended by Seniors Maria Raffin and Debby Tonner, while Seniors Tom Hart, Steve Walker, and Randy Robbins attended Boys state at ISU.

Singing Sands Editor Pam Whitton, Photographer Val Urello, and Reflector Editor Jeff Hibbard attended the Journalism Seminar at Ball State University.

Audio-Visual techniques were studied at the AV Seminar at IU by Juniors Bonnie Beck, Bob Ton, Jim Henkel, and Warren Zeigler and Senior Martha Smith.

Drama and Debate Seminars at Indiana University were attended by Seniors Ivan Edwards and Bill Bushnell and Juniors Carolyn Katzen, Beth Dresh, Jim Chubb, Paul Sunderland, Bill Sunderland, Paula Kelly, and Sue Jackson.

Senior Sharon Carnes went to Indiana University for a Broadcasting Institute.

Junior Mark Bratcher spent eight weeks at Ohio State University attending a Math Institute.

Senior Martha Hammerman participated in a Biology Seminar at Indiana State University.

Senior Pam Whitton and Sophomores Michelle Graham, Chris Meyer, and Terri Smith spent two weeks in Browntown, Tenn., completing a community center for Project Concern.

Traditional Voodoo Night sparks enthusiasm throughout Student Body

Clad in Lettermen jackets, the spirited Boosters began their day of September 21, 1972, by cheering in the lobby and snakedancing through the school. As the day passed, shreaks of excitement echoed from room to room. Such cheers as "We'll Make Alpo Out of Valpo" and Valpo's Green With Envy" surrounded the halls to pep up the students for the jinx to be cast on Valparaiso Vikings the next evening.

As school ended, a group of students gathered to form the biggest and best bonfire yet at CHS. As a crowd began to gather in the parking lot, loud and vigorous cheering began. Looking toward the wooden form, the students saw a ten-foot evergreen tree being hoisted into the middle of the material. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Waskom and Mr. Robert Jones, the task was completed, and amid the crowd stood a 20-foot wood constructed pyramid.

Cheering continued as everyone joined hands for the snake dance through town and to the Port Drive-In. Traffic cleared the way and looked upon the students with awe. Returning to the site at CHS, Sophomore Tim Wratten lit the traditional bonfire. A group of students from each class made Viking dummies which were thrown into the bonfire. The night ended with caravanning through town yelling, "Go Trojans, Beat Valpo."

After the night of chanting and cheering, students found that the jinx worked as the Golden Trojans downed Valparaiso Vikings, 25-14.

1972 Homecoming Parade introduces new groups to community members

After a week-long effort to build their class floats, CHS students ran to their sites at the close of school, October 20, 1972, to launch what they considered the best float.

Parade Marshalls were Mr. Lee Amstutz and Mrs. Elke Bowman, Senior Class sponsors, and Homecoming Chairman, Senior Debby Tonner, worked diligently to organize the parade at Westchester Middle School. As the Parade began, new entries such as the Color Guard, Junior Varsity Trojanettes, and a parade of bands were a few of the new groups introduced to the townspeople.

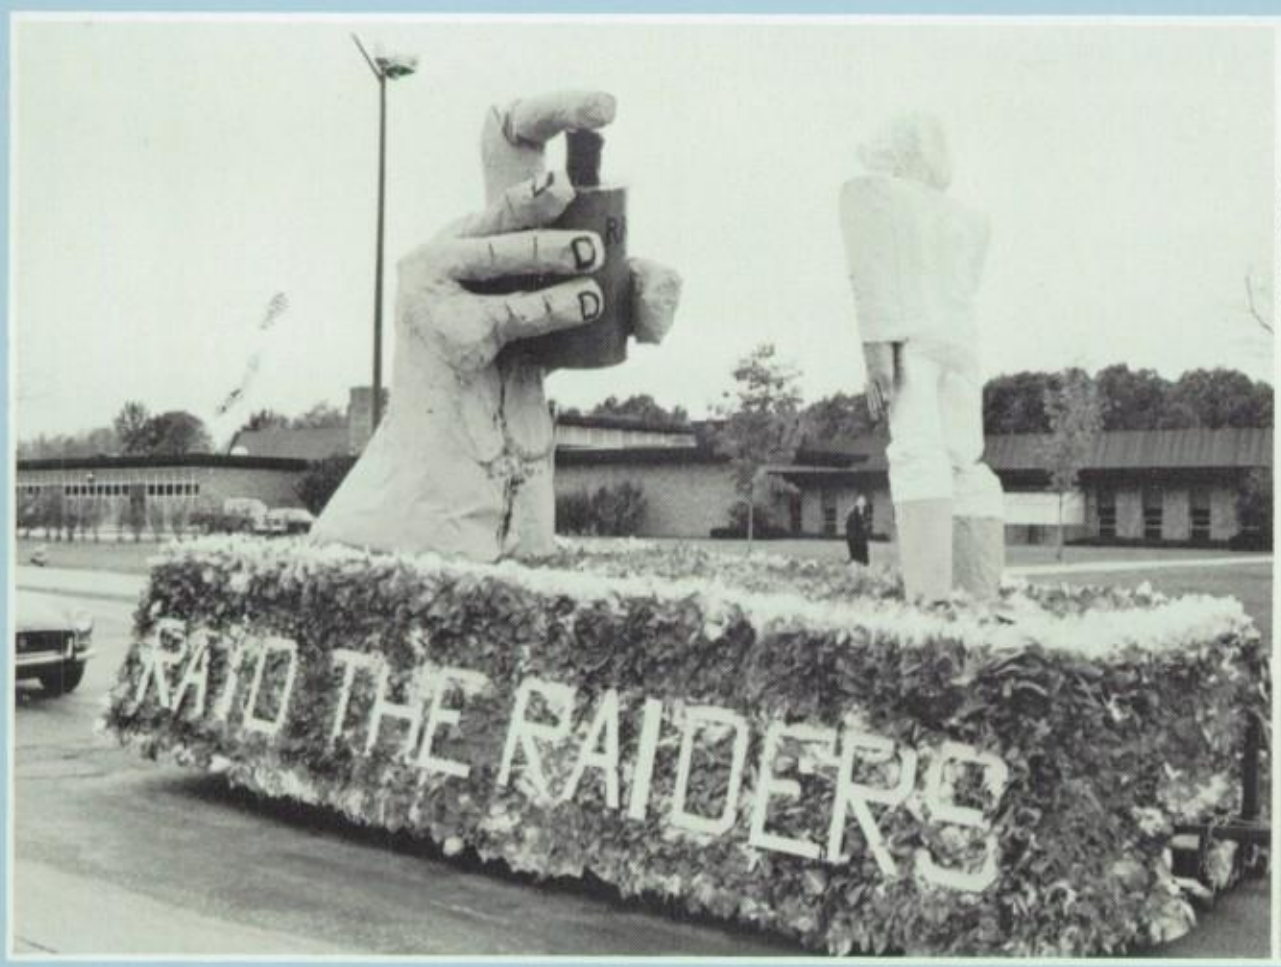
Homecoming Queen Candidates, Seniors Lorie Covey, Betty Hamilton, and Robin Hunter, and Juniors Linda Ehrick and Sue Stahl, along with last year's queen, Tina Evans Lee, were chauffeured in MGB's provided by Midland Imports of Chesterton.

As the Parade continued through town, Senior Nancie Wysong escorted Michigan City Rogers four class presidents along the route for the judging and selection of the winning float. After much deliberation, they came to their decision. Announced at halftime of the Homecoming game, the Senior Class float, "Raid the Raiders," won.

Although they didn't win, underclassmen were proud of what they, as a whole, had accomplished, and looked forward to next year when they would have another chance.



Hopeful wishes, fulfilled by Student Body,

Suspense and excitement were two feelings within everyone on October 20 when Lorie Covey, Betty Hamilton, and Robin Hunter, seniors, and Linda Ehrick and Sue Stahl, juniors, vied for the title of 1972 Homecoming Queen. Rumors filled the halls during the last couple hours of the day with names of each hopeful winners.

As the day ended, the parade kept the minds of candidates and students preoccupied for awhile.

Half-time ceremonies began as each prospective queen rode up to the football field in MGB's along with their escorts. During the announcements each candidate, carrying a half-dozen white roses with maroon and gold streamers falling from them, and her escort walked from the south side of the football field to the north side where the platform was erected. As each candidate took her place on the platform, 1971 Queen Tina Evans Lee proceeded to crown the Queen. Parading back and forth behind the candidates, the suspense ended as Tina placed the tiara on the head of Senior Robin Hunter, 1972 Homecoming Queen.

After being congratulated by the court, Robin and her escort, Dan Niepokoj, graduate, were chauffeured by Senior Kevin Lawson around the track.

After the game Robin was honored at a reception given by Student Government in the cafeteria.

Christmas spirit reflects Peace, Good Will

CHS Christmas spirit was high the week before vacation. The snow fell and the last-minute rush continued. Upper Division and Lower Division lobbies each had a tree that was student-decorated. On Friday before vacation, Principal William Crockett, placed a tree in his office filled with candy canes, which students were urged to take during their lunch hours.

Also, on Friday, choirs and bands performed the traditional Christmas songs along with other selections for the entire Student Body. Santa Claus, traditionally played by Mr. Glen Percifield, helped set the mood.

Along with all the hustle, bustle, and enjoyment of Christmastime, the true meaning of Peace and Good Will was also felt, as students bid one another "Merry Christmas" before departing for two weeks of vacation.

Trojans set territory on Pow Wow night; Indians cross over

Trojan Boosters rallied to set Trojan territory against Portage Indians the night before the Chesterton-Portage game. Students gathered behind Goldsborough Gym and combined to form a caravan throughout town. Winding up the caravan, Boosters gathered in the gym for a pep session sponsored by Booster Club. Chants and snake dancing echoed from the high ceiling as the Varsity Cheerleaders led the Boosters in cheers supporting the basketball team. Unable to overcome Portage's power, the Trojan team was defeated 76-53 the next evening.

Spirit Expression Day excites competition for team, faculty, fans

Freshmen and Sophomores experienced a day like never before when they participated in the annual Spirit Expression Day, February 21, 1973. Secretaries and teachers alike dressed in costumes to join in the spirit of the day. During the Pep Session the finalists were announced for the competition of "Best Dressed" in each class. The winners were Freshmen Mark Jaeger, Sophomore Carl Gast, Junior Nancy Schroeder, and a tie in the Senior Class as Rich Bentley and Wendy Karp shared the title.

Basketball Queen Gwen, Princess Jennifer

Gwen Schneckenburger, senior, was crowned 1973 Basketball Homecoming Queen during the half-time ceremonies on February 9, 1973. For the first time this year CHS Student Government devised a new method of choosing candidates. The Upper Division basketball players nominated three Seniors and two Juniors to vie for the title of Queen, as the Lower Division players nominated two Sophomores and two Freshmen for Princess. Following the nomination the candidates were voted on by students in their respective divisions. By popular vote Senior Gwen Schneckenburger was crowned Queen. Gwen's court consisted of Peggy Beile and Jean Miller, seniors; and Sandy Speckhard and Karen Vawter, juniors.

'Music Man' Don Gaines brings River City to CHS

"But he doesn't know the territory."

Senior Don Gaines may not know the territory, but he sure knows his business. "The Music Man," created by Meredith Willson, deals with the life of a small Iowa town, River City, in 1912. A rascally but attractive salesman of musical instruments and band uniforms, Professor Harold Hill, played by Don, comes to town to sell his wares.

Professor Hill sets out to steal the heart of Marian (the Librarian) Paroo, played by Melanie Wells. Marian, who is not easily swayed, sets her territory from the beginning, without listening to the advice of her mother, played by Senior Debby Stout, and the faithfulness in Professor Hill of her brother, Winthrop, played by Freshman Greg Michl. Michl.

Overall director was Mr. Glen Percifield. Mr. Robert Stone was in charge of vocal music and Mr. Royce Armstrong, instrumental music. Other members of the cast include Jim Chubb, as Marcellus Washburn; Monika Erichsen, as Ethel Toffelmeier; Pam Budris, as Amaryllis; Paul Sunderland, Mayor Shinn; Beth Sari, Mrs. Eulalie Shinn; Nancie Wysong, Zaneeta Shinn; Jill Anderson, Gracie Shinn; Bill Bushnell,

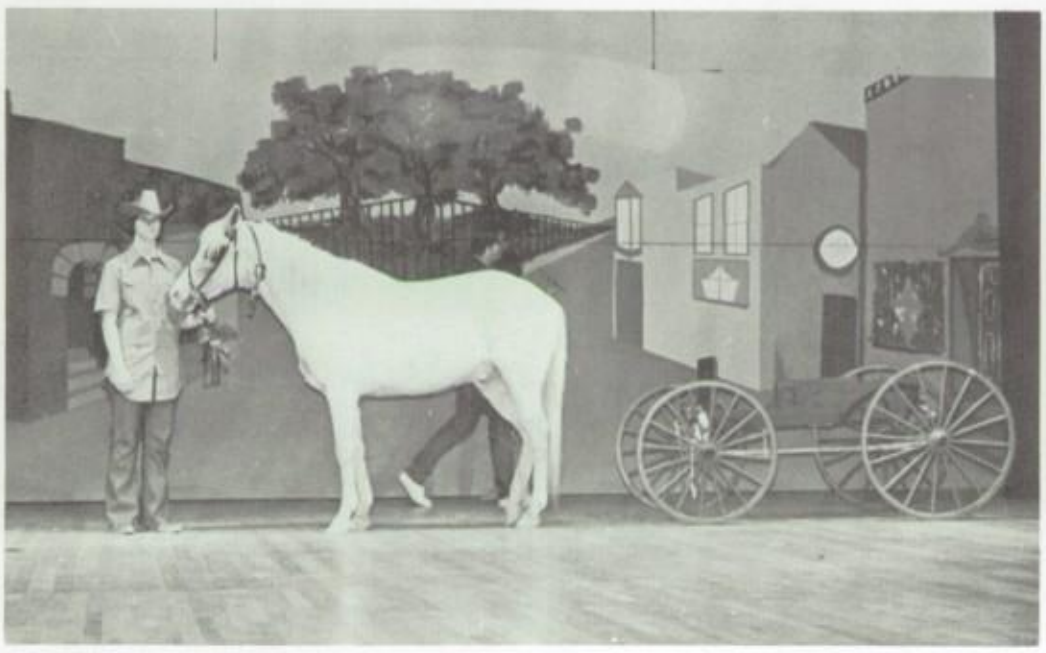
Members of the school board and quartet are Jim Ryan, Barry Hunt, Mike Mannen, and George Roccia. Their wives are Kathy Goeddel, Sarah Murray, Debbie Stipanovich, and Sandy Speckhard. Other members of the cast are Terri Huggins, as Freda Freap; Joy Stricker, as Mrs. Locke; Ivan Edwards, Constable Locke; Rick Highberger, Man One and Two; Dale Slont, Man Three; and Tim Knutson, the Conductor.

BELOW RIGHT: The town tough guy, Tommy Djilas (Senior Bill Bushnell) proudly leads the band while Professor Hill pleads with them to "THINK."

Cast, dancers, soloists combine for variety

A number of different groups combined to add variety to the "Music Man." The orchestra and the chorus are instrumental in providing background, theme, and overall music. These, with the dancers, soloists and the guidance of the directors and others involved, made "Music Man" a success.



FAR ABOVE LEFT: Professor Harold Hill distracts the quartet from pursuing him after they have been deputized. Behind-the-scenes crew knows, shows territory

It takes a lot of work behind the scenes to make a successful production. Before a play can take place, the set construction crew has to build and paint the background.

When the night of the production arrives, the stage crew takes over from where the set construction left off. This crew changes scenes and adds props when called. Makeup and lighting finish the added effects to make the production a success, and the scenery realistic.

May 11 was the beginning of the construction of the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom.

Beginning with the efforts of many juniors, the walls of the courtyard were put up and the construction was underway. The constant humming of saws, pounding of nails, and buzzing of electric scissors were the only sounds heard through the following Tuesday. Once the walls were completed and most of the scenery planned, the star-covered sky went up.

Meanwhile, the drawbridge was being painted and the sod was put down. From there, only the minor work remained. It was completed, and after a donated pizza, the doors were closed at 10 p.m. Thursday, May 17.

As the couples entered and crossed the bridge the night of May 18, many expressed awe. The moat, the garden, the well, and the fountain all helped make the theme "Knights in White Satin" a success.

After the crowning of Ron Pearman, King; Maria Raffin, Queen; Judy Kunst, Princess; and Dean Inherst, Prince, Senior Class President Tom Hart and his date led the Grand March. It ended with the royal couples dancing to the theme song as other couples joined in.

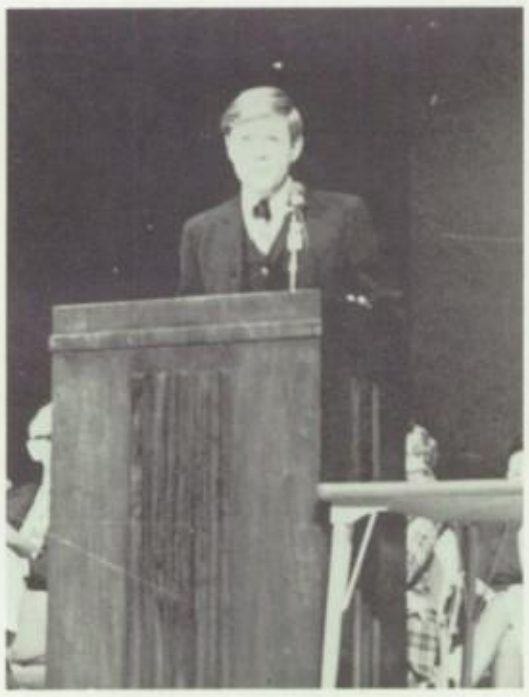
Senior Class officers presented gifts to Mrs. Janet Zeck, Mrs. Elke Bowman, and Mr. Lee Amstutz, class sponsors, and to Mr. Fred Tolbert, class guidance counselor.



Steve Walker, Sue Meyer, Randy Robbins lead class

"It is the traditional purpose of the valedictorian address to recall the past, to touch upon cherished memories, activities in which we've participated, the friendships we've made; but each event has its significance in the mind of the individual. Each memory has its own timeless beauty; each activity has had its own unique rewards; and each friendship, a priceless and inseparable bond of mutual trust," stated valedictorian Steve Walker at the 82nd Annual Commencement on June 3, 1973.

As co-Salutatorian, Sue Meyer spoke on the challenges we have met throughout our years, beginning with the consolidation, through accepting the challenge of graduating with our class.

Randy Robbins, co-Salutatorian, added," In order to face and solve the numerous problems we will encounter upon our departure, we must, as individuals, be prepared to take a firm stand regarding the problem. If we do not strive wholeheartedly and sincerely, then we are wasting our effort."

As the Senior Class sat together for the last time, amid the crowd of 3000, the members came to realize that their motto, "Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced," had a great bearing on their lives and proved that CHS was one of the great steps building a fine individual for the future.

Art gives students opportunity to express

Art this year is divided completely into 12 nine-week mini courses. Some of the new and special classes are rug hooking, macrame, sketching, landscape and portraits, jewelry, enameling, carving, and an informative course in Art History.

The Art Department has three display cases which are decoratively assembled with the young artists' handmade treasures. Every few weeks the display cases are redecorated by the students with new art objects.

An enthusiastic response has been shown in the art program this year by both teachers and students. The success is greatly attributed to the fact that new and different courses have been offered this year, according to Miss Helen Sauer, Art Department Chairman.

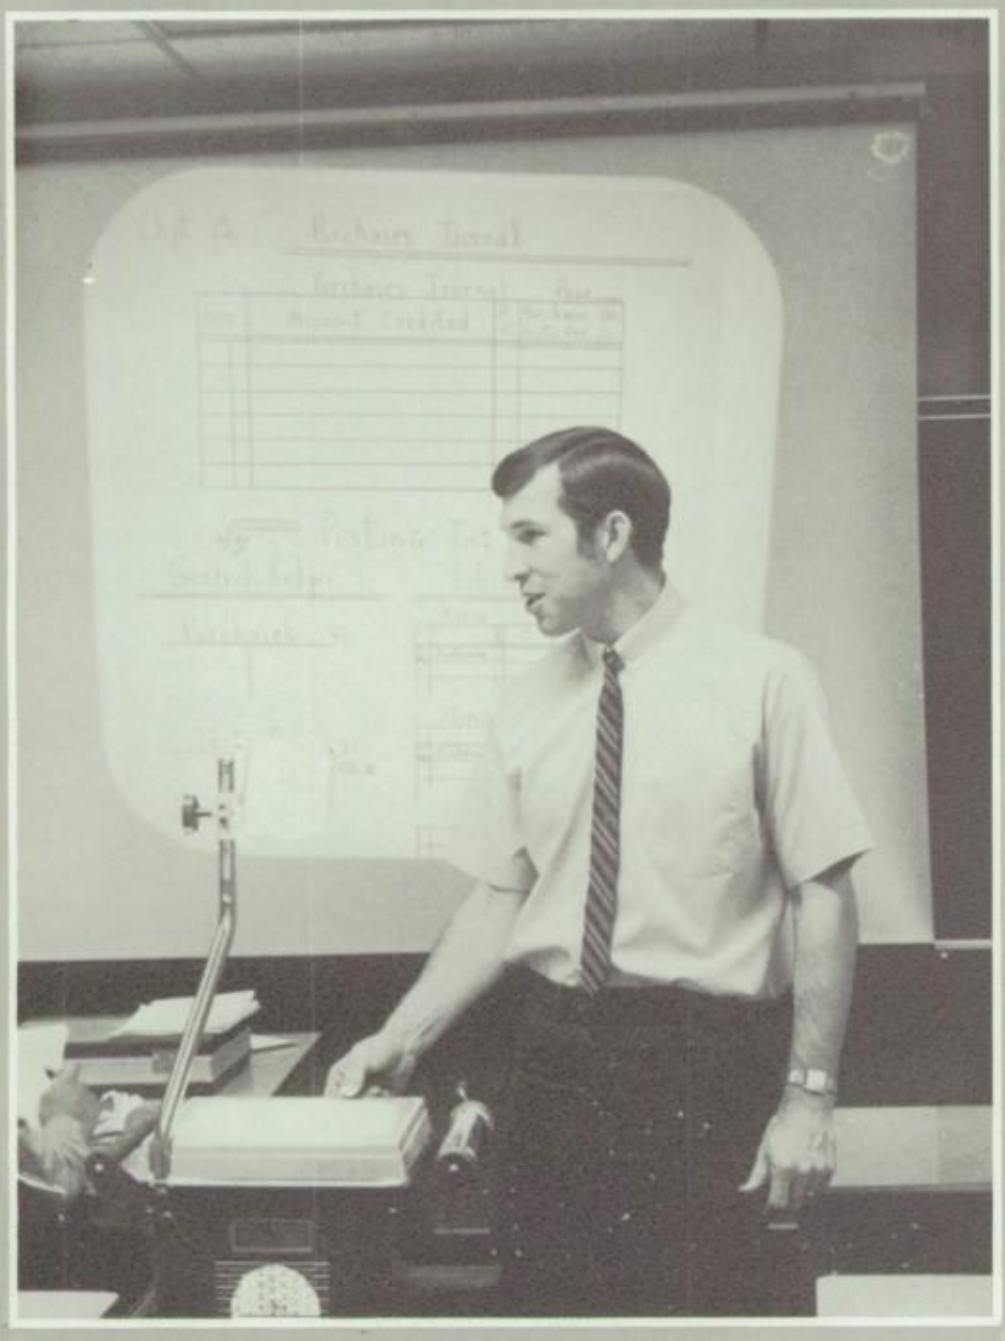
Facilities attract career-minded students toward varied, expanded business curriculum



This year students were able to prepare themselves for the outside world with an assortment of Business classes. Data Processing, Shorthand, and Bookkeeping, along with regular Typing classes provided practical experience for students who have business interests, while Intensive Office Lab prepared girls for future employment by teaching them the actual procedures in the business world. Business Law was offered for students interested in the legal aspects of business transactions. Another class, Consumer Education, was offered for students who wish to be economical consumers in future years.

Altogether, the bigger facilities proved to be an incentive for the students to excel in their chosen business courses.

Addition of mini courses expands interests

This year's Junior and Senior Communications (formerly called English) students were introduced to a new program where they were able to choose classes in the areas that interested them most. Each student was required to pick one class in each of the following areas of Communication: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. A total of 54 electives were available to choose from, each of them nine weeks long. The students also were able to choose any number of other electives after they had fulfilled the four required areas.

Some of the classes Seniors chose are Introduction to Humanities, Interpersonal Communications, Persuasion, Reading for College, and Advanced Composition. Some of the classes Juniors are able to pick include American Humor, American Novel, Propaganda and Fallacies, and Speech Basics.

Both teachers and students agree that the mini courses are an improvement to the Communications program, because the student is able to pursue his interests in more than one area.

to speeches, levels, large group studies

Level work is the dominant program for the Freshmen and Sophomore Communications classes this year. Students are able to work at their own capacity, receiving a letter grade for each level completed. Besides being in the required large groups, which consists of approximately sixty persons each, the students were also put in small groups where they could work on group discussions or speeches.

Unlike the Upper Division Communications students, the Freshmen and Sophomores were not allowed to pick nine-week elective courses. They were given a basic course of study that prevailed throughout the year. The techniques that are used and learned will prove valuable for the advancement to Upper Division Communications courses next year.

Juniors, Seniors gain valuable experience from variety of coed Home Economics courses

Gone are the days of the traditional sewing and cooking classes. Now such classes as Tabletop Cookery, Tailoring, Interior Decorating, Child Care, and Family Living make up the Home Economic Department.

Emphasis has been placed on teaching the students how to cope with personal and family problems as well as teaching them how to be thrifty consumers and parents.

In foods classes, students engage in new courses such as Gourmet Cooking and Entertaining, while in clothing classes girls are taught the History of Fashion and Design. Coed classes such as Child Care have students engage in playful activities with the children, while in non-major foods beginning chefs learn to prepare quick and simple foods for almost all occasions.

Students learn skills in Industrial Arts beneficial both today plus later in life

As in many of the other departments this year, the Industrial Arts program focused its attention on teaching the student skills that will be necessary for success in the working world. Courses offered to the students include Woods, Metals, Power, Graphics, Drafting, and Electricity.

In Woods students build such things as cabinets and tables, while in Metals they work with sheet metal and welding. In Electricity students learn about generators and transistors; in Power classes basic steps of two and four-cycle engines are taught. Graphics students learn about silk-screen and block-printing operations.

Language students learn foreign customs through class studies, outside activities

French, Spanish, and German Classes engaged in many exciting and interesting activities this year. They sponsored a Donkey Basketball Game, visited the Art Institute, participated in Christmas parties, cooked German treats, sold apples, and translated foreign films into understandable English.

The foreign language program gives the students time to study both the customs and languages of foreign countries.

A new curriculum this year places students on an independent approach where they learn how to use tapes, handouts, and to ask questions when they did need help. After completing a series of assignments, each student is required to complete correctly an oral conference with the teacher over the materials he or she has studied. Each student progresses at his or her own speed, receiving a letter grade when completing a level.

Simulations, group discussions, projects bring awareness to Social Studies students

This year's Social Studies curriculum stretched out to meet the cultural and ethnic background of the world's leading nations. Every student was able to participate in discussions on Communism, Vietnam War, and religion.

Juniors were allowed to take required government courses while Seniors put the finishing touches on their graduation requirements.

Mock trials were conducted in Civil Rights and Liberties classes, with the Honorable Miss Barbara Stroud and Mr. Roger Emlet presiding. They interviewed prospective jurors and passed judgments when the situation warranted it. The Executive and Legislative Functions class elected presidents and senators, passed laws, and even saw fit to impeach a few dignitaries.

Environmental field trips highlight year; students work on projects, labs, simulations

Earth Science classes experienced trips to the gypsum mine and limestone quarry, an all-day bus tour to study Porter County's geography and a trip to the dunes to study the effect and cause of erosion. Conservation classes learned a great deal concerning the environmental and geographical changes that invade one's everyday life.

Freshman Biology's classroom-lab situation consists of separate unit areas, each equipped with micro units, tapes, and tools for the required experiments. Advanced Biology dealt mostly with dissecting and studying the organs of the human body.

Chemistry and Physics students did experiments that opened their minds to the way chemicals and other liquid and solid objects react to one another's composition.

Both Upper, Lower Division Math students demonstrate skills while solving problems

Theorems, equations, square roots, proofs, and story problems are just a few of the things this year's math students attempted to solve. The Math Department provided the students with computers to help solve the extremely difficult problems and dedicated teachers to answer the students' question.

Unlike many of their other classes, the math students were competing against their classmates and were expected to keep up with them. For this reason many different varieties of courses were available. For example, a student who felt he was not quite ready for Algebra II could choose either Introductory Algebra II or Intermediate Math. It was a challenging year for both the genius and the struggling student.

enable choirs to attain excellent ratings

Students enrolled in music this year gained performing experience while entertaining others with their music. Both the Swing Choir and Concert Choir made various appearances during the year, performing for students, families, and the community.

Choir classes were offered to students who enjoyed singing both in large group situations and performing solos. Besides the regular choir classes the Music Department had a variety of instruction classes to choose from, including Music Theory, Jazz, and Music Masters.

The Concert Choir presented a Christmas Concert for the student body and others throughout the year and also participated in the spring musical, The Music Man, which gave the students valuable experience as well as enjoyment.

Marching, Pep Bands add excitement to games; Orchestra, Dance Bands offer different music

Come sunshine, wind, or rain, the CHS bands were out practicing everyday without fail for their performances at the varsity football games. The Sophomore Band marches at the beginning of the games, while the Upper Division Marching Band performs during half-times and at the end of all games.

The Pep Bands play for all home basketball games. They enhance the cheers by accompanying the students with chants such as "Hello Dolly" and "Proud Mary." Two Dance Bands this year provided jazz music for the school.

An added attraction to the Music program this year is the orchestra, directed by Mr. James Beaver.

CHS musicians show potential at contest; many concerts fulfill busy band schedules

Many concerts dominated a busy band schedule this year. Besides the Upper Division Band, both Freshmen and Sophomore Bands spent many long hours of practice to prepare themselves for performing before audiences both at contests and concerts.

CHS band members did very well at NISBOVA contests this year. At District, 21 students (more than 50 percent of those participating) placed first, and 20 placed second. At State 23 firsts and 19 seconds were won.

As in previous years, the Upper Division Concert Band played at the 1973 graduation exercises. The Senior Class chose the songs they wished the Concert Band to perform, and following the Chesterton High School tradition, "Pomp and Circumstance" began the graduation ceremonies.

During the second semester Mr. Rick Overgaard took over as assistant band director in charge of the Freshmen and Sophomore Bands, while Mr. Royce Armstrong continued as director of the Upper Division Band and Music Department Chairman.

PE classes utilize pool, new gym facilities; Health, Drugs classes learn from discussions

This school year brought about many changes in our Physical Education program. With the takeover of Central Elementary facilities, Chesterton High School gained the advantage of another gym and expanded the use of the pool.

The olympic-size pool has six classes which meet all year and are concerned only with swimming while other regular gym classes spend one quarter of their required year in the pool. The newly-acquired gym is basically a girls gym, with all the facilities needed to teach girls the fundamentals in a variety of sports.

Drugs classes spend time discussing the drug problem from the sociological, physiological, and the environmental aspects.

Health and Safety classes discuss health problems, do individual health projects, and learn about body organs and their functions.

Students, administration, succeed together

This is the second successful year of the CHS Student Government which is identical to the United States Government structure.

Student Government is composed of a legislative branch, with Seniors and Juniors forming the Senate and Sophomores and Freshman making up the House of Representatives.

The Executive Branch is headed by Principal William Crockett. This section consists of an Executive Committee composed of the President of the Senate Max Highberger, Speaker of the House Ken Tuttle, Senate and House appointees, Vice-President Maria Raffin, and Clerk Treasurer Joe Tierney.

The third and last section of the Student Government is the Judicial Branch, which is composed of a screening board of two teachers and two students to review cases that are presented to one of the Appellate Courts. The other part of the Judicial Branch is the Supreme Court, which is made up of six students, two teachers, and one administrator, Mr. Robert Ehrick. Its function is to rule on cases that lower courts cannot decide on.

CHS retains second place in NFL District;

The Speech and Debate team had more than 100 students this year participating in meets.

The high point this year was when Senior Debby Tonner and Junior Paul Sunderland placed second in the annual NFL District.

Speech Sectionals were here this year with 11 schools participating. The team placed second with 17 students qualifying for Regionals. Placing third in Regionals, the CHS talkers had five entries in State Finals.

Students going to State Finals are Juniors Paul Sunderland, Boys Extemporaneous; Bill Sunderland, Discussion; and Pam Ols, Impromptu; and Sophomore Debbie Wahl, Original Oratory and Oratorical Declamation. Senior Debby Tonner is an alternate in Girls Extemproaneous. Debbie Wahl went on to represent CHS in the Nationals.

Students, teachers display acting abilities

Over the past year the Chesterton High School Speech, Debate, and Drama Department, under the overall direction of Mr. Glen Percifield, presented four productions.

"The primary purpose of the show is to give CHS students a chance to display their talents to the community and to their fellow students. Many of the students have talent and work hard to further develop it but are never given the opportunity to perform before an audience," states Mr. Percifield, co-director of the Talent Show, the first production.

During the evening 20 acts were presented. One of the highlights of the evening was the opening number, featuring Principal William Crockett playing guitar accompaniment for singers Mr. Royce Armstrong, band director; Mr. Robert Stone, choral director; Mr. Ronald West, Social Studies teacher; and Mr. Joseph Wycoff, English teacher.

Another production which was presented was a comical love story, Charley's Aunt, directed by Mr. Wycoff and Mr. Richard Nahas. The cast of the play is Jim Chubb, as Jack Chesney; Bill Bushnell, as Charles Wykeham; Don Gaines, Lord Fancourt Baberley; Kevin Doler, Brasset; Sam Miller, Stephen Spettique; Debby Tonner, Amy Spettique; Debbie Wahl, Kitty Verdun; Tim Knutson, Col. Sir Francis Chesney; Joyce Bertolacini, Ela Delahay; and Beth Sari, Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez.

Aladdin's Lamp, a children's play, was the next to be presented in the CHS auditorium. Students receiving parts were Rick Soard, as Aladdin; Kathy Kelchak, as Adora; Dan Skaggs, Magician; Deb Nadratowski, Mother; Mickey Hopper, Sultan; Deb Stipanovich, Noona; Kathy Jeffrey, Kalissa; Sherry Hall, Genie of the Ring; Monika Erichsen, Genie of the Lamp; and Mike Kennoy, Guard.

Flowers for Algernon was the final production presented by the Speech, Debate and Drama Department. Members of the cast were Kevin Doler, as Dr. Strauss; Tim Knutson, Prof. Nemur; Greg Odle, Burt Seldon; Barry Hunt, Charlie Gordon; Bert Dilworth, Frank; Jim Crumpacker, Joe; Bill Bushnell, Father; Jim Chubb, Teenager Charlie; and John Williams, Mr. Harvey.

The department also cooperated with the Music Department in the annual spring musical production, which this year was Music Man.

Other directors for these productions are Mr. Richard Nahas, Mr. James Cavallo, and Mr. James Jeselnick. Helping in all the productions are also Mrs. Susan Schoeck, make-up and costume; Mr. Lee Amstutz, stage crew; and Mr. Dan Beckley, lighting.

Cadet teaching provides look into future

"The purpose of USFE (United Students for Education) is to give students an insight into the field of education, stressing teaching through the cadet teaching program, and other areas related to education such as guidance and school nursing," states sponsor Mr. Ralph Ayres.

During the year several members participated in a cadet teaching program at Bailly Elementary School for one semester. Also during the year the club took part in several conferences at other schools, posted information and pamphlets for National Education Week, and sold Golden Trojan stationery.

Officers for the 1972-73 school year are seniors Joy Stricker, president; Mike Mannen, vice-president; and juniors Martin Jeffreys, treasurer; Beth Dresh, membership chairman; and Vicki Anderson, publicity and scrapbook.

OEA develops leadership abilities

During the past year the members of OEA (Office Education Association) have been selling different products. Some of the projects that were organized during the year were the sale of maroon and gold key chains and candles.

OEA is a voluntary association of local, state, and national youth groups supporting office occupations education. The association is designed to develop leadership abilities in the American business system and competition in office occupations within the framework of vocational education.

Jan Heying is president of this year's club, which is composed of senior girls who are members of Intensive Office Laboratory classes. Other officers are Cindy Newcome, vice-president; Patti Miller, secretary; Kay Woynaroski, treasurer; Roberta Brueckheimer, reporter; Marylou Olson, historian; Sheliah Adams, sergeant-at-arms; and Janet Slont, parliamentarian. Mrs. Mildred Callis is sponsor.

Creative Writing Club produces 'Passage'

One of the new clubs added to CHS this year is the Creative Writing Club. The club's main objective was to collect and organize all poems, short stories, and art work done by students or faculty members for their publication, Passage. After publication the booklet was then sold to the student body and to the public in the spring.

Editor of the publication is Senior Karen LaVelle. With the help of assistant editor Sharon Carnes and business manager Emily Swenson, both seniors, and sponsor Mrs. Hannah Eldridge, the publication proved to be a big success.

BELOW: Seniors Karen LaVelle, Sharon Carnes, and Emily Swenson discuss the publication date of their book.

Another organization which was revived this year at CHS was the Photography Club, under the leadership of Mr. Dan Beckley, AV director.

The purpose of the club is for members to gain the experience needed to understand and use all photography techniques to the fullest extent.

Each member was shown some procedures such as developing film, printing and enlarging pictures, making slides, and using the camera and accessories, with the application of all the photography techniques.

Library divides to offer double services

This year the Chesterton High School Library expanded to a Lower Division and an Upper Division Library. Although the Lower Division Library is not yet as completely developed as the Upper Division Library, it still offers many things to the student body, according to Mrs. Jackie Manis, Lower Division Librarian.

Working this year with Mrs. Elyse Reynolds, head librarian, are Mrs. Shirley Albertson, Upper Division Librarian, and Mrs. Manis.

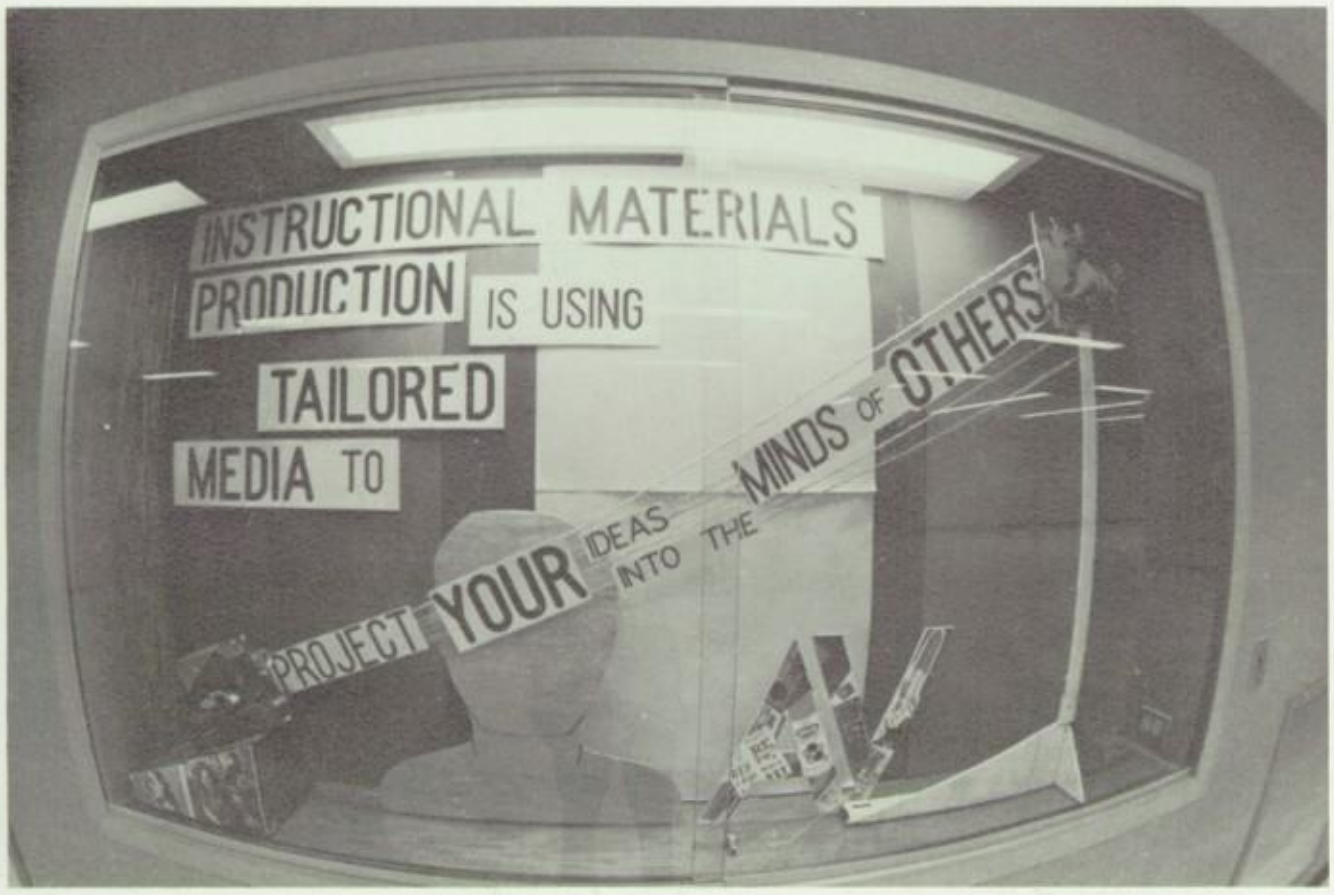
AV provides background material for students



One of the things added to CHS this year is the new production center, under the direction of Mr. Dan Beckley, audio-visual director. This year students and teachers are able to have slides made, film developed, and different types of printing done for school projects by the production center. Equipment such as tape recorders, projectors, record players, overhead projectors, and slide projectors are available for use by students and faculty also.

Yearbook expands for additional students

With an addition of 600 students to CHS, the Singing Sands staff has increased its total number of pages by 24 to make it a total of 224 pages this year.

During the year the staff sponsored a dance and a picture sale. Proceeds from these activities, plus subscriptions, ads, and picture commissions, are used to pay the expenses for the publication of the yearbook.

Further acknowledgements and specifications are listed in the back of the book.

The 1972-73 Reflector is a bi-weekly publication that features news concerning student events, activities, and interests.

A special issue was published by the staff for the Fall Open House, where the community had an opportunity to view facilities in the expanded high school structure. The Reflector also presented special issues for Christmas, Sectionals, and Graduation.

Proceeds from ads, subscriptions, dance, and the sale of Homecoming Mums paid for the 16 issues as well as gave staff members another opportunity to work together.

The Reflector staff has undergone many changes in the past year. Instead of having one editor-in-chief for the entire year, the job was divided up by semesters, with Seniors Jeff Hibbard and Emily Swenson sharing the duties. Junior Laurie Carr kept the books balanced and ads in order as business manager. Also, serving as photographers for both newspaper and yearbook were Seniors Twig Whisler, Val Urello, Dennis Wagner, Sharon Carnes, and Mickey Hopper, and Sophomores John Butler and Tim Wratten.

National Honor Society, Lettermen provide

During the year the National Honor Society provides its services as ushers for play productions, concerts, CHS Open House, and any other extracurricular programs which need assistance.

At mid-year National Honor Society selected 45 seniors and 44 juniors as new members. On February 11, they were initiated in a formal ceremony to which parents were invited.

Planning the initiation were officers Randy Robbins, president; Maria Raffin, vice-president; Sherry Hall, secretary; and Steve Walker, treasurer. All are seniors.

Sponsors for the National Honor Society are Mrs. Sharon Robbins and Mr. Fred Tolbert.

This year the Lettermen Club has been helpful during the home basketball games. Before the game they pull the bleachers out, and after the game the bleachers are put back. At each game they are stationed at each door to sell programs, and at half-time they sweep the floors. The money which is made is used to purchase letter jackets for new members.

Assisted by sponsor Mr. Ray Banary, the Lettermen once again succeeded in a Canned Goods Drive for the needy at Christmastime. The cans were collected and then distributed among families in the Duneland area. In the spring they also assisted the Chesterton Junior Women's Club in the annual "Walk for Mankind."

The Lettermen Club officers for the 1972-73 school year are Randy Robbins, president; Garry Nallenweg, vice-presdient; Bob Rhoda, secretary; Jerry Troke, work committee chairman; and Rich Bentley, publicity chairman. All are seniors.

Boosters plan sign painting, pep sessions,

The 1972-73 Booster Club began the year under new leadership. Mr. James Fiddler became the new sponsor, with Mrs. Sharon Robbins continuing as assistant.

During the year the Booster Club made preparations for such things as Parents Night, pep sessions, sign painting, and the Booster Board.

Under the leadership of President Bette Deuberry, senior, the club also sponsored several dances and sold spirit corsages. Assisting Bette are Senior Lisa Peterson, vice-president, and Juniors Barb Peterson, secretary, and Dawn DeGroff, treasurer.

This year eight maroon and gold jackets were given to the seniors who have contributed two or more years of service to the Concessions Club.

During the year several new popcorn machines and hot coffee and cocoa machines have become very useful during both basketball and football games. Besides football and basketball games, the Concessions club also provides services to GIA activities and other special events. Leading the club in these activities this year are Patty Thoesen, president; Gayle Custer, vice-president; Cindy Oates, secretary; and Kathy Gordon, treasurer. Mr. Robert Waskom is sponsor, and Mr. Thomas Noesges is his assistant.

Varsity Cheerleaders again earn top honors

Once again the Varsity Cheerleading squad captured first place at Western Michigan University Cheerleading Camp over the summer. Junior Linda Ehrick was named Outstanding Cheerleader. At the camp, the girls exchanged cheers, skills, and techniques with other squads and learned new ones. They were judged on a point system based upon their mounts, cheers, and uniformity.

During the year the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Freshman cheerleaders, assisted by Mrs. Sharon Robbins, sponsor, had several pop bottle drives and bake sales to raise money to purchase numerals and chevrons and to pay camp expenses for the girls. Junior Varsity Cheerleaders also sold programs during Varsity Football games.

Trojanettes place second at State Contest

The Varsity Trojanettes placed second out of six groups of the State Contest at Hanover Central High School. This is the first year they participated in any major competition. Mrs. Kathy Barbian, sponsor, states, "The girls looked sharp and did very well."

Besides State Contest, the Varsity Trojanette squad participated in the Christmas parade and performed during football and basketball games.

Trojan Football carries 7 win—3 loss record

Varsity Football at CHS was full of excitement this year as the Trojans won three games by one touchdown or less and lost to Hobart, 10-8, in a Duneland Conference thriller. CHS finished 1-3 in the Duneland Conference beating only archrival Valparaiso Vikings, 25-14.

Chesterton's varsity grid team was led by the passing of Senior Mike Ayers, who attempted 89 passes and completed 39 of them for an average of 43.8 percent, and scored 62 points.

Also helping CHS was Senior Tim McGinty, who averaged 4.6 yards per carry and gained 417 yards all season. McGinty also scored 36 points. Junior Jack Cutler assisted in the Trojans winning season by running for 469 yards and averaging 4.9 yards per carry.

The Trojans ended the season with 2,910 yards gained in passing and rushing. They had a very tough defense that made the opponents turn over the ball at fourth down situations.

At the end of the season Wil Cogdill, Jack Cutler, Mark Dickinson, Tim McGinty, and Ron Pearman were named to the Duneland Conference All-Stars. Honorable Mentions went to Pete Ferrari, Mike Quinn, Mike Ayers, Paul Hodge, and Glenn McNeill. Seniors Mike Ayers, Tim McGinty, and Ron Pearman were voted Tri-Captains by members of the team.

JV, Freshmen gain experience for next season

The Junior Varsity team and new coach Mr. Dennis Evans had their troubles this season. The future Trojan team ended the season with a 1-win, 5-loss, and 1-tie record.

The team, made up of Sophomores, tied a tough East Gary team, 6-6. Their next game came against Crown Point with the Trojans losing by less than one touchdown, 18-15. The next three games were tough for the grid team as they lost to Valparaiso, Hobart, and Portage. They won their final game to Calumet by forfeit.

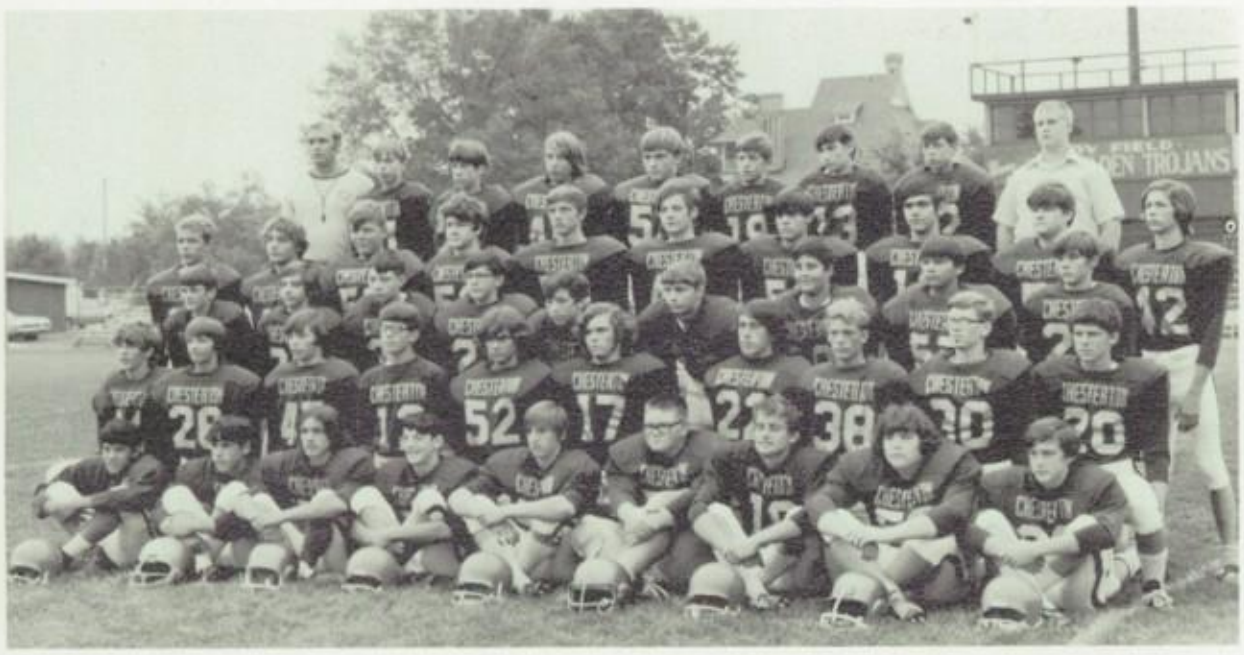
through vigorous workouts, hard-fought games



The Freshmen moved back to Troy Field this year to start a seven-game season. The young grid team started with a fine win over LaPorte Kessling, 14-8, here at Troy Field, but fell in their next two games. They then fought to a 14-14 deadlock with Thomas Jefferson of Valparaiso.

"The next three games proved to be a little tough for the Frosh, but they played fine offense and tough defense despite a won-loss record of 1-5-1," said Coaches Tom Peterson and Al Eggars.

lettermen for harrier future

Cross Country ended Friday, October 20, 1972, after Sectionals at Hobart's Cressmoor Country Club where CHS placed tenth in a field of 20.

Coach William Bailey stated that 11 harriers lettered this season as Cross Country had a record of 6-12 in dual meets.

Senior lettering this year are Jim Kunst, Kevin Lawson, Garry Nallenweg, and Dennis Wagner. Juniors are Dean Inherst, Dale Slont, Joe Tonner, and Tim Wagner. Sophomore Lettermen are Mike Barrack, Doug King, and Rick Parker.

Coach Bailey felt that injuries hampered the team's performance all season. Don Pearman, who placed ninth in state last year, was sidelined with a hair-line fracture in the calf of his leg.

"This season was not the best season we've had," stated Coach Bailey, "but this team has great potential for future seasons at CHS because we have seven lettermen back next year."

Trojan Racketmen end season with .500 record

CHS Racketmen were led by a new coach this year, Mr. Bill Gustin. He was assisted by Mr. John Norris.

It took a while for the tennis team to get on the winning track, as they lost their first three matches. But then the Trojan netmen came to life and shut out Duneland Conference rival, Hobart, 5-0, in an exceptionally well-played match, according to Coach Gustin.

CHS won its next two meets by close scores of 3-2 to Michigan City Elston and Crown Point. After a mid-season slump, the Golden Trojans shut out Valparaiso, 4-1, as they ended their season placing second in the Sectionals.

Most Valuable Player Award went to Sophomore Bruce Hunter. Most Improved Player Awards were earned by Senior Bill Adams and Pete Crumpacker.

Seniors who lettered this season were Bill, Pete, Ivan Edwards, and Phil Lau. Returning lettermen will be Junior Bill Hanson and Sophomore Bruce Hunter.

GIA field hockey, badminton, and volleyball

GAA, Girls Athletic Association, was changed to GIA, Girls Interschool Athletics, this year. Many girls participated in the GIA Fall Sports, which included field hockey, badminton, and volleyball.

Field hockey was led by team captain Nancy Rearick, with Mrs. Carol Dick and Miss Donna Kraus, GIA Director, coaching. They lost five games and tied their last one. It was the first year for most of the girls. "They were a young team and we expect a good team next year," stated Miss Kraus.

Badminton girls won two out of three games played against Portage, the only other team in this area competing in this sport. In the Badminton Tournament, Junior Wendy Frodin and Sophomore Val Whitton reached Semi-Finals. "They played well, with Pam Hollaway, senior, and Lisa Read, junior, also doing exceptionally well, "Miss Kraus, coach, said.

Volleyball was coached by Mrs. Pat Morthland. She felt they had a good season, winning five games and losing five. "The team has a lot of potential and next year we'll miss seniors Bev Olson and Joy Strickler, "Mrs. Morthland stated.

Juniors show potential for next Trojan season

"Our boys did real well—no complaints." This is how Coach Ray Manis summarizes the 1972-73 Varsity Basketball season, his first at CHS.

The cagers opened the season with a victory over River Forest, 96-63. They lost the next games to Lake Central, 44-64, and Valpo, 51-69. The next big game was against Griffith, which they lost by four points, 43-47.

The cagers got their chance to cut the net at the Holiday Tourney. In the first game they beat Kankakee Valley, 57-53, and the final game against Tri-County was won by 60-47.

The Trojans won the next three and the Trojan spirit was high; but they lost the following four. The cagers then won against Elston, 74-69. and then fell to 11th ranked Hammond Clark in overtime, 48-53. They won the last two, Merrillville, 46-41, and Hobart, 76-72, in overtime to wind up 1-3 in the Duneland Conference.

After 12 years at Chesterton, sectionals moved to Valparaiso this year. The Trojans won the first game against Boone Grove, 64-40, and fell to Portage in the semi-finals, 67-50.

Juniors Joe Gifford and Pete Ferrari worked as a team to lead the Trojans. As leading scorer and top rebounder, Joe averaged 13.3 points per game for a total of 293 for the season. Pete saved the team from many opponents' points by being the best in assists and recoveries. Pete was the only Trojan to make All-Conference.

Seniors Ron Pearman and Steve Cawby also assisted the team to a 12-10 season. Steve had a .770 average in free-throws, while Ron led the defensive play, according to Coach Manis.

Other Trojans who assisted in points were Senior Pat Mitchell, 217; and Juniors Mike Matanich, 110; Randy Schmidt, 101; and Brian Wolf, 63.

JV, Soph records reflect tough team spirit

Junior Varsity Basketball got it all together this year, under the coaching of Mr. Ed Lewandowski, and finished their hardwood season with a record of 11 wins and 9 losses. River Forest was the first to feel the effects of a determined Trojan ball club, as they were downed by CHS, 49-21. Continued victories over tough competition gave the JV cagers a chance to build up the momentum needed to carry them victoriously through the Chesterton-Portage battle, 51-34. Although unable to defeat their last six opponents, a Michigan City Holiday Tourney Trophy gave loyal JV fans something to be proud of.

Bill Moeller first swimmer to go to State

The CHS swim team finished its season with an 8-10 record. They placed third in the Duneland Conference and third in the Griffith Invitational.

Many old records were broken as new ones were set. Senior captain Paul Miles broke four records: 200-yard individual medley, with a time of 2:21.8 (also a pool record); 400-yard freestyle at 4:21.8; 100-yard butterfly at 1:05.5; and the 200-yard freestyle at 2:01.9 (also a pool record).

Three Juniors broke records. Clarence Hilton swam in the 50-yard freestyle with a pool record time of 0:24.4. Bill Moeller broke the pool record in one-meter diving with 219.80 points, qualifing him to dive in the State Competition at Ball State University. Ray Dunn broke a school record in the 100-yard breaststroke with a time of 1:11.8.

The 400-yard freestyle team of Paul Miles, Tom Draves, Clarence Hilton, and Jim Read holds the pool record with a time 3:48.6.

Coach Richard Small was assisted by Mr. John Norris, who also coached JV.

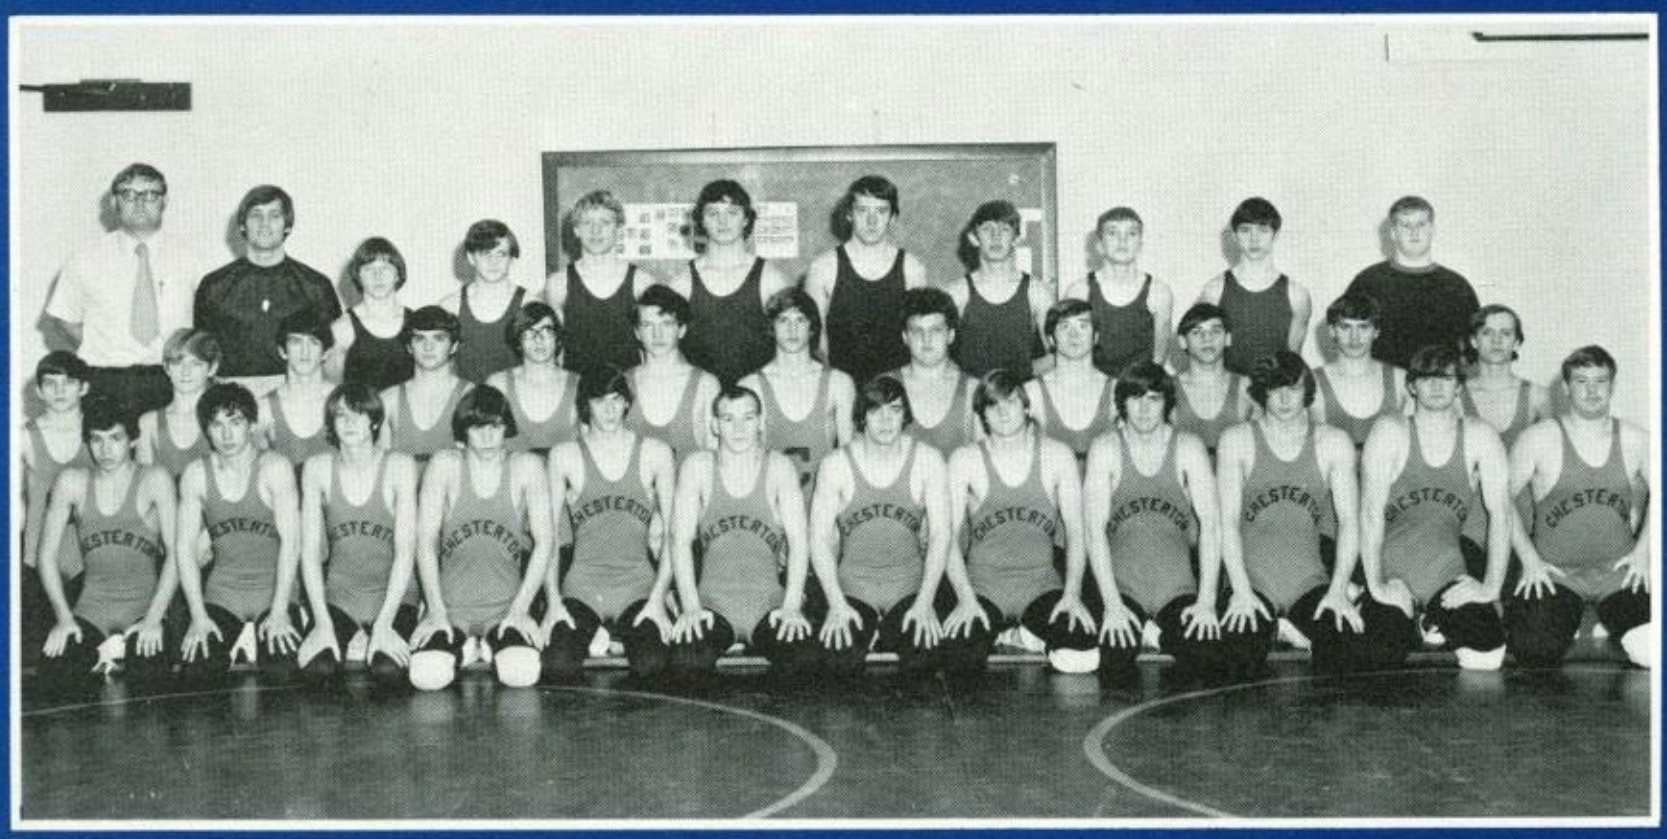
Twelve underclassmen letter for next season



Trojan wrestlers ended their season with a four-win, six-loss record under the new coach, Mr. Dennis Evans.

Grapplers started the season with a loss to Merrillville, 33-28, then beat Michigan City Rogers, 33-22, in a conference dual. They went on to defeat Andrean, 39-12, and beat another Duneland Conference rival, Valparaiso, 30-20.

The next five meets were depressing for the Chesterton matmen as they lost to Hobart, Portage, Crown Point, Highland, and Hammond Gavit. But Chesterton beat Gary Wirt in their final meet of the season, 36-30.

Wrestlers of CHS did well in the tourneys by placing sixth in the Penn Tourney and third in the Chesterton Tourney. CHS also placed third in the Duneland Conference and fifth in Sectionals, which sent Al Zosso, Don Dehart, and Mark McGee to Regionals.

JV shows good sportsmanship through season

Junior Varsity wrestlers started the season off well, but faltered toward the end. The young Trojans lost their opener to Merrillville, 45-21, but won the next two, beating Duneland Conference member MC Rogers, 37-22. Then, they defeated Andrean, 42-21. The rest of the grapplers' season proved to be a downhill battle for the team, which consisted mostly of Sophomores and some Juniors, as they lost their last six meets.

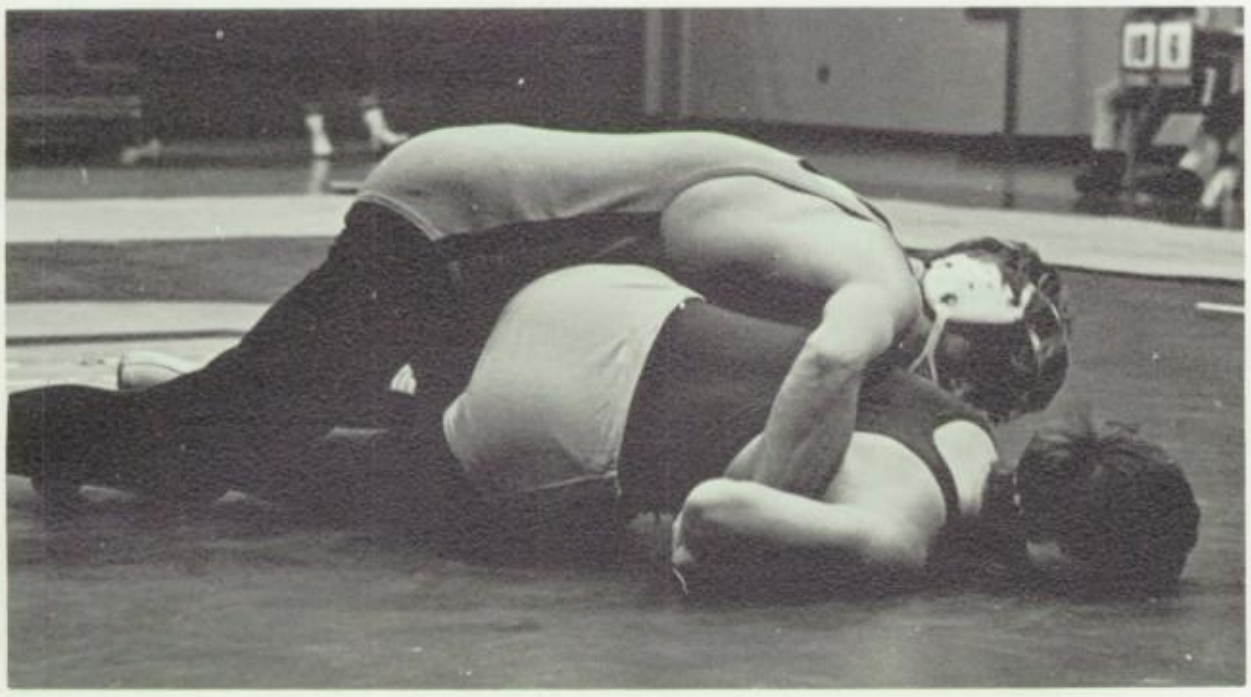
Freshman team ends with 8-win, 2-loss record



The Freshmen brought a lot of muscle from the junior high for wrestling this season. The young Trojans, coached by Mr. Tom Peterson, ended their season with eight wins, and two losses.

The Frosh started by winning their first three meets in high school competition. They beat LaPorte Kessling, 54-12, in their opener, then arch-rival Valparaiso Jefferson in a no-contest, 60-2. The young Trojans lost their next meet to Hobart, then wrapped up their season by winning their last five out of six meets and placing first in the LaPorte Tourney.

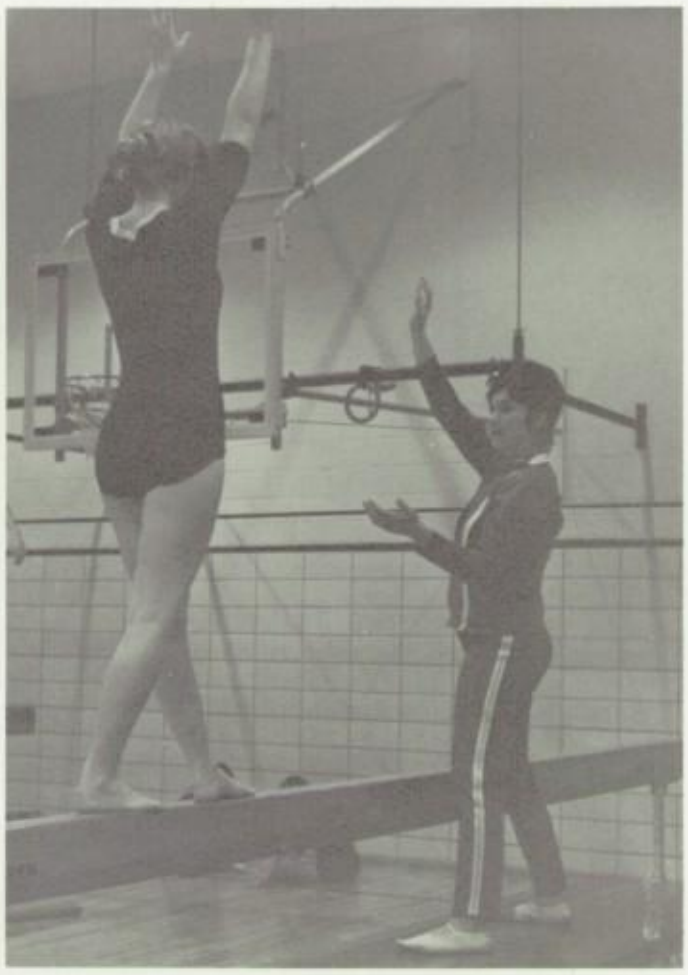
entertaining, exciting, vigorous activities



The winter session of GIA includes a high quality of player and much enthusiasm, according to Miss Donna Kraus, GIA Director.

This year GIA has a Director of Girls Sports in Indianapolis who coordinates all of the sports. Gymnastics is one of those which has a state-sponsored meet.

The GIA Basketball A team ended with a record of 6-5, and the B team with 5-6. The A team competed in the District Tourney, defeating Portage, 34-32. The team was coached by Miss Kraus and Mrs. Pat Morthland and Miss Linda Jenning, assistant coaches.

The CHS Gymnastics team, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Dick, had a season record of 8-4. They placed second to Portage in both Beginning and Intermediate Compulsories at Sectionals. The first two levels in each event advance to the Regional Meet in Elkhart. Robin Hunter placed second in Beginning Balance Beam Compulsory, and Betty Hamilton placed second in Advanced Uneven Bars. Robin Hunter advanced to State by placing second in the Regionals. The swim team had a 2-9 season and competed in the Regional Swim Meet at South Bend. Team Captain is Junior Barb Adams, and Coach is Mrs. Delores Read.

Rain hampered the start of the varsity baseball season this year, causing CHS to open with a double-header against Gary Wirt. The Trojan batmen won the opener, 1-0, behind the one-hit pitching of Senior Steve Cawby. CHS lost the second game, 4-5.

Cawby pitched another shutout against River Forest, 4-0. CHS then went on to win their next three games, including the Wirt Tourney, where Senior Tim McGinty was named most valuable player.

The next game came against Duneland Conference foe Portage. The Trojans went into the game with a 5-1 record, but lost, 5-6. CHS went on to win their next five out of six games before losing to South Bend Jackson, 2-4, in the second game of a double-header.

The next four games were conference games for the Trojans. They beat MC Rogers, 3-1, behind another fine performance of Cawby who struck out 17 Raider batsmen. CHS then lost to Portage and beat Hobart and Valpo. The Valpo game was Cawby's seventh victory and third shutout.

McGinty led the team with a batting average of .421 as well as in hits, runs, and home runs. Senior Pat Mitchell was right behind Tim with a batting average of .356; he also led the team with 15 RBI's.

Cawby led the pitching staff with a 7-win, 1-loss record, ERA of 1.48, and ended the season with 73 strike-outs.

JV baseball had a .500 season this year, winning five and losing five, under the coaching of Mr. Ron Lebo.

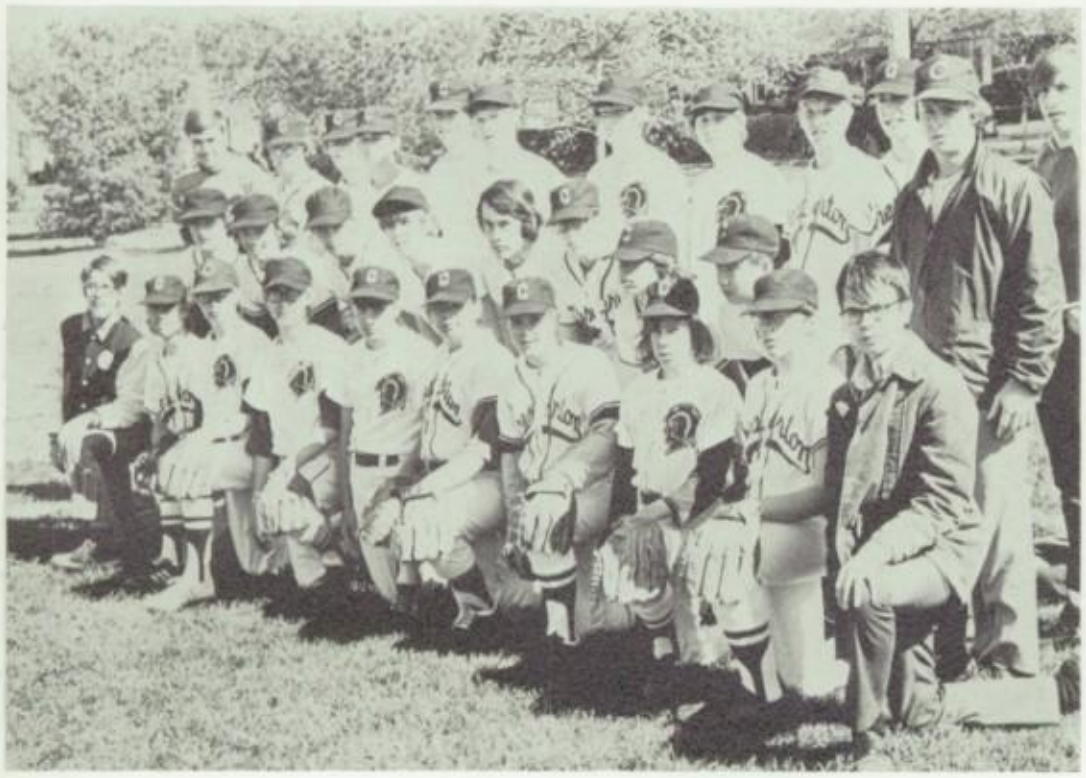
The team lost their opener to Highland, 1-2, but beat Hobart, 4-2, in the second game of the season. Hobart then got revenge by beating the Trojans, 2-6.

CHS went on to beat East Gary, 4-2; Valpo, 5-4; South Central, 4-2, and Valpo for the second time of the season, 7-5. They then lost to Hebron's varsity team, 1-4; Portage, 0-3, and MC Marquette, 2-3.

The JV Trojans were led by Junior Cliff Smalley with a batting average of .333, while Sophomore Bob Cunningham was second with an average of .320.

Bob was just as ferocious on the mound, as he won all four games he started.

Freshmen have impressive 8-win, 1-loss record



The Freshmen pulled an impressive record this season, winning eight ball games and losing only one.

The Trojans, who are coached by Mr. Fran Shove, started the season with a shutout victory over Merrillville, 5-0. Ray Banary got the win for the Trojans. They went on to win their next four games before losing to Hobart, 9-11, but bounced back to beat the Wheeler varsity team in a real slugging game, 23-13.

Freshmen batsmen wound up the season getting revenge on Hobart, 6-1. The leading batters for the team were Bill Morris, Ralph Hotchkiss, and Jim Stokes, and leading pitchers were Ray Banary, Jim Stokes, and Bill Morris, with an undefeated record.

CHS golfers came out about even in both varsity and junior varsity competition this year.

Varsity golfers ended the season with a 6-8 record, and JV had a 7-6 record. Late in the spring, the varsity golfers placed fourth out of ten teams in the South Newton Invitational.

Coach Ray Manis lost only three seniors—Todd Matanich, who was voted Most Valuable Golfer and who broke 70 at Forest Park with a 69; Bob Rhoda, and Duane Ruge.

Track ends with undefeated dual meet record

Varsity track ran to an undefeated dual track meet record this season, with seven new school records set.

In the Duneland Conference Meet, three individual champions were Senior Mike Ayers, 14.9 in the high hurdles and 20.0 in man, in the half mile; and Junior Howard Lane, in the long jump.

New school records set this year are: Ayers, 14.9 in the high hurdles and 20,0 in the low hurdles; Paul Miles, 130'1½'' discus throw; and Howard, 22'6½'' in the long jump. Bill Bradford tied the high jump record at 6'2''. The shuttle hurdle team, consisting of Mike, Wil Cogdill, Jerry Lindahl, and Howard, set the record at 47.2.

Regional qualifiers were Howard and Terry Mannen, in the long jump, and Mark Dickinson, in the shot put.

Howard was the only CHS representative in the State Meet.

Spring activities prove successful for GIA;

The GIA spring sports offered much competition and success this year.

The GIA track and field team, coached by Miss Donna Kraus, remained undefeated this year with a record of 10-0. The team placed first in the district meet and fourth in the regionals. The four girls who qualified for state were juniors Marie Mathias, who placed second in the 80-yard hurdles tying national time of 11.0; Judy Knust, who placed sixth in the 440-yard run; and the 440-yard relay team of Juniors Tina Lobsiger, Marie, Judy, and Sophomore Joan Jacobsen which placed 10th.

GIA bowlers ended their first year of competition bringing to a close a six-week session. Coaching the girls was Mr. Joe Quartuch, who said about the year of this program for CHS, "Much time was spent with bowling techniques, especially spare shooting."

Holding high average of the girls was Junior Vicki Anderson, holding a 145¼ average throughout the season; high game went to Sophomore Dora Smith who bowled a 221. Others on the team included Juniors Dawn DeGroff, Diane Dietrich, Judy Edmonson, Joanne McClure, and Chris Wahl, and Sophomore Trena Macrander.

Mr. Warren Canright, editor of the Chesterton Tribune, presented the trophy for the Tribune to the athlete who has contributed the most to CHS sports throughout the year.

All CHS athletes were honored at the three Sports Banquets—Fall, Winter, and Spring. This year at each banquet, certificates were presented to all participants from their coaches in freshman, junior varsity, and varsity sports in separate ceremonies for the athletes and their parents. After the banquet, special awards were given in each of the varsity sports for that season. Team members then presented gifts to their coaches.

Recognition also was given at the various banquets to cheerleaders, Booster Club officers and members, Stop Watch Club members, and others who helped with athletic events throughout the year.

IM successful after fourth year in session

The Intramural Program consisted of eleven sports over the eight months it was in session.

Mr. Joseph Wycoff, director, was pleased with the turnout of students, indicating that the program is very worthwhile, he said.

Mr. Wycoff also said he feels that Intramurals more than accomplished its purposes, which are an opportunity for every CHS student to participate in athletics, regardless of his or her ability.

Intramurals introduced a new sport this year, archery, which was offered along with bowling, tennis, basketball, volleyball, swimming, gymnastics, and weight-lifting.

During a Senior Year one tries to become closer to his classmates. Through experiences together and knowing that many probably won't see one another again, the Seniors worked hard to have a winning Homecoming float.

Starting with their Sophomore Homecoming Float, the Light Bulb Sale, Candy Sale, receiving class rings, and putting together a Prom, Graduation was near.

With the realization of Graduation near, many Seniors felt the drain of being a Senior, not only in their pockets, in yet many other ways too. Ordering announcements, caps and gowns, and buying Senior pictures, many wished their last year at CHS would pass more slowly.

After making a change in sponsors from their Sophomore year to having one leave them their Senior year, Graduation came and the Class of '73 went down in the history books of CHS.

Sponsors, officers prepare class of 1974

The Juniors began their year with the election of class officers. The class then built their float, "Raider Decapitator," for Homecoming.

The traditional Junior Candy Sale began in October. This year the Juniors collected more than $4,500, which was to be used toward Prom expenses.

After the selection of chairmen, Juniors began working on the Prom. The evening of May 18 was chosen as the night when the "gentlemen" led their "ladies" through an evening of glamour and excitement. It will always be remembered by many CHS students, especially for the people who worked on it, and for the ones who went to it, as one of the best events of the year.

Sophomores begin year by selecting officers

Sophomores greeted their first year in the high school but for the first time in several years, they were upperclassmen to the Freshmen.

The Sophomores began the year selecting class officers. Next, the class displayed their ability to work together on the class float, "Whip Those Raiders." Their rings arrived in the spring and were proudly displayed. The money-making project for the year was selling candy.

With the help of class sponsors, Mr. Paul Knauff and Mr. Donald Graham, the Sophomores are looking forward to becoming members of the Upper Division with all the activities of being a Junior next year.

Freshmen Class progresses to high school life as class sponsors guide elected officers

The Freshmen year was a time of trial and success with the new experience of mini-courses, new teachers, and involvement in high school life.

The Freshmen began the year by electing their class officers: Bert Miller, president; Beth Hammond, vice-president; Kathy Maguire, secretary; and Kitty Thorstad, treasurer. Later in the year they united to organize the building of their float, "We're Bigger and Better."

For their first money-making project they sold stationery, with a profit of approximately $350. Later, the class members proved to be diligent workers by sponsoring a dance.

They accomplished all this with the guidance of class sponsors, Mr. Charles Martin and Miss Gail Schrader.

The Freshmen Class has shown the potential to keep working and become a stronger class. They have been given the opportunity to excel in athletics and academics and have proven themselves worthy of, and a potential asset to, Chesterton High School.

Beth Hammond, vice-president; Kathy Maguire, secretary; Kitty Thorstad, treasurer; and Bert Miller, president, look to sponsors, Mr. Charles Martin and Miss Gail Schrader, for advice.

Administrators set guidelines to provide

The purpose of the CHS administrators is to work as one to help develop students to their highest level of achievement. Each is assigned to a specific area to which they devote most their time.

In full responsibility of the operation of the high school, Principal William Crockett is also responsible for the Student Government. About this he says, "Our Student Government has been very influential across the country. Our students made it work."

Supervisor of all student activities, Dr. F. Edward Wall has completed his second year as an assistant principal of CHS, this year in charge of Upper Division. During the summer and early fall he was responsible for placing furniture in the new facilities.

Mr. Alfred P. Nelson, Assistant Principal of Lower Division, observes classrooms year-round for teachers' evaluation. He is also principal of Adult Education, and works along with the Student Government in planning convocations.

Engaged in the job of Dean of Students are Mr. Robert Ehrick, Upper Division, and Mr. Robert Jones, assistant in charge of Lower Division. Together they are responsible for the control of student behavior and for the disciplinary actions against students who do not adhere to school policies.

Pupil Personnel prepares students for future

Pupil Personnel Services provide information for every student concerning his goals during and after high school. The people involved work together to help every student.

The Guidance Department this year has made two major changes. It is divided into Upper Division and Lower Division offices. In previous years, the counselors major concern was making sure students were getting along in school. "This year, they are trying to work the students' schedules around what they want to do after graduation," according to Mrs. Rachel Oesting, Pupil Personnel Director.

The nurses are here to help any student who has a health problem or injury. In some cases, they visit the home to help with sick children, says Mrs. Sharon Isaacs, head nurse. Also, every year they administer TB tests and fluoride treatments to students of Duneland Schools.

Attendance Office keeps tabs on students

The Attendance Office is another department of Pupil Personnel Services. Mr. Ray Banary, attendance officer, takes care of absentees, tardies, and truancies. Mrs. Dorothy DeGroff, secretary of the attendance office, assists Mr. Banary in keeping attendance records, while Mrs. Sharon Isaacs, nurse, assists in the writing of student excuses. Monitors deliver passes along with other chores throughout the day.

ABOVE: Mr. Ray Banary, attendance officer, checks over a few necessary papers. CENTER: Mrs. Dorothy DeGroff, attendance secretary, offers her assistance to Mrs. Shirley Gaston, head of the Business Department. Mr. John Mathias, Duneland Athletic Director, supervises the total athletic program, including Girls Interscholastic Athletics (GIA). He is assisted by Mr. Melvin Bair. In the Athletic Department they deal with the budget, game schedules, banquets, coaching assistants, and various other duties. Mr. Mathias is also in charge of all physical education for the Duneland Schools, which includes supervision of teachers and programs throughout the system. In all, he directs, besides CHS, five elementary schools and two middle schools.

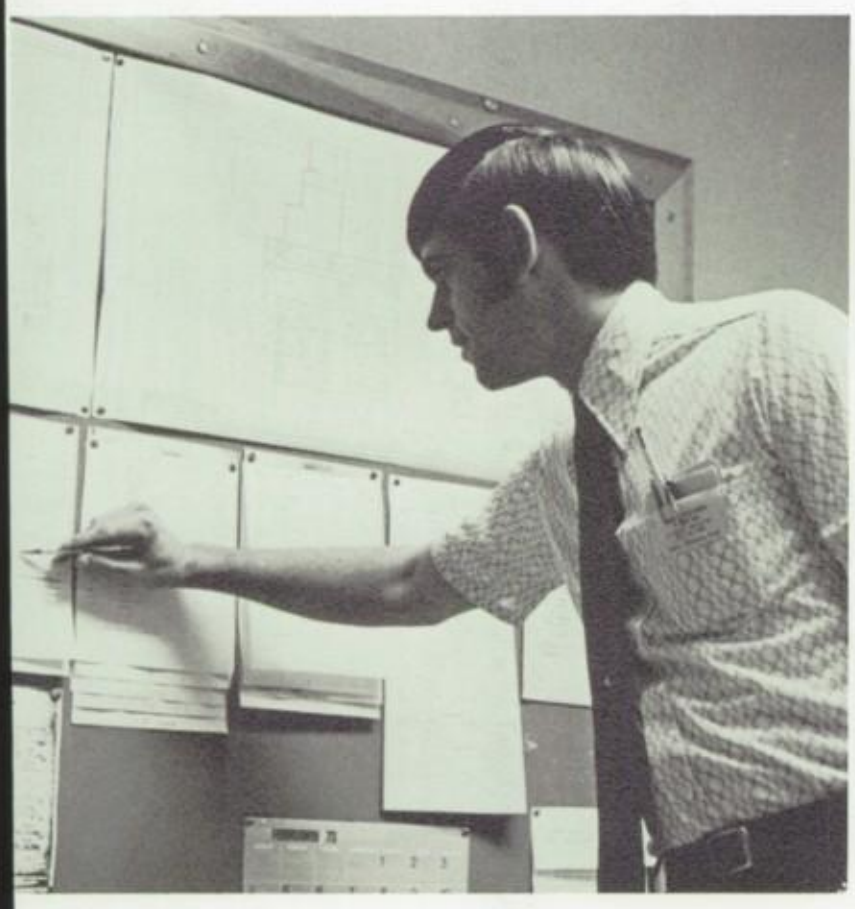
Athletic office keeps activities on schedule



FAR ABOVE: Mr. John Mathias, Athletic Director, pauses before leaving for an appointment. LEFT: Mr. Melvin Bair, Assistant Athletic Director, approves a date on the calendar. ABOVE: Mrs. Laura Volk, athletic secretary, checks to see if there are any errors in typing a statement.

Bookstore provides many items for students

The Bookstore supplies students with school necessities such as pens, pencils, notebooks, and paper. They also sell candles, key chains, Trojan license plates, spirit corsages, decals, and tickets for all extracurricular activities, such as sports events, drama and musical production.

Books are stored there for distribution to various classes each quarter, semester, or year, and book rental and fines are handled through the Bookstore also.

Mrs. Laura Volk is in charge of the Bookstore and is assisted by Mrs. Carolyn Cole as well as student monitors each hour of the day.

Secretaries keep school running smoothly

CHS Secretaries participate in an organization called Duneland Association of Educational Secretaries. Mrs. Sylvia Collins, secretary of Upper Division Guidance Office, is president and Mrs. Laura Volk, Athletic Department secretary, is vice-president. This organization presented a style show this year, with proceeds going to the Porter County Special Education Program.

Attending meetings and workshops throughout the entire year, the secretaries also have an annual luncheon to which all administrators are invited.

Assisting administrators, teachers, and students throughout the school in a variety of activities, the secretaries and aides help to make the entire school operation run as smoothly as possible.

As the school became bigger this year, a secretarial pool was formed where extra typing and clerical work was done for the teachers.

Aides, monitors offer valuable assistance

Throughout the school year an increased number of aides have helped both teachers and students in a wide variety of activities. They assist teachers in grading papers, taking roll, typing and dittoing material, helping in lab situations, and keeping their departments in order. Aides also assist students with homework, getting the right information, and arranging for students to go to another lab or lounge.

Students were placed in different areas of the school as monitors assisting administrators, secretaries, and teachers. They help with such things as delivering passes, answering telephones, filing, folding material, and running errands.

Auditorium monitors are a new addition to CHS this year. These monitors can operate all lights and props in the auditorium and often assist in productions there.

ABOVE: (sitting) Mrs. Barbara Hultquist, Miss Mary Rader, and Mrs. Judy Kearney, and (standing) Mrs. Joan Wahl, Mrs. Rebecca Piornack, Mrs. Margaret Yagelski, Mrs. Kathy Turner, and Mrs. Virginia Fishero aid various departments. Cooks believe variety adds spice to life

The teachers were provided this year with their own lunchroom facility. The cooks serve both the students and the teachers. Mrs. Doris Swisher, head cook, says, "Even though we are serving more students, there haven't been any major changes."

Mr. David Boo, building supervisor, and his 18 assistants are on duty day and night keeping the school neat and clean. The school is divided into nine sections with two persons to a section. Each section contains 12 to 15 classrooms to keep clean. The workers are given a code number by which Mr. Boo can contact them should any problems arise.

Senior Linda Samilson waits on Sophomores Kathy Ryan and Lynn Cunningham for a quick meal before a game at the Hi-House, 201 Calumet Rd., Chesterton.

Mrs. Barbara Grudovich pleasantly assists Sophomore John Frame with his next investment at Porter Bank, on Lincoln Street in Porter.

You'll wear wings of wealth when you save at Porter Bank

Area offers variety of service to students

Students admire their class rings from Herff-Jones. Other jewelry and announcements are also available to high schools and colleges from Herff-Jones, with Mr. George Kingsley as representative, R.R. 3, Box 747, Monticello, Ind.

The Chesterton High School Athletic Department wishes to express its appreciation to Bob Genda Chevrolet on U.S. 20, for the generous donation of this station wagon for use by the department.

Juniors Laurie Carr and Billie Wettstein find a wide choice available from the menu at MacDonald's while Senior Sheryl Pisarski waits to take their order. MacDonald's is located at 2002 N. Calmet Avenue, Valparaiso.

MRS. JANICE CUSTER .....ADVISER

Unlike any other year, this has been unique. Working with a top quality adviser and staff proved that people could work together for something that they all believed in. Sure there were gripes and arguments; however, this staff had something many students don't have: dedication, time, and talent to produce something worthwhile for their school.

Deadlines were met, sometimes at the last minute, giving up Saturdays and staying up on week nights to add perfection and constitute ideas to establish concrete facts. The theme was not followed throughout the entire book but stressed the importance of getting across the idea of the year and appealing to the mass student body.

There are so many to thank for making my job easier, mainly, Mrs. Janice Custer—without her I wouldn't have made it at all, and the staff, what can I say—you were great!

Also giving time and cooperation were:

Mr. Ronald Bakaitis—for use of the Graphics room and supplies, while putting up with me with knowledge and dilligency.

Mr. Daniel Beckley and the AV Aides—for the contacts and prints of the many rolls of films and last-minute rushes.

Mr. William Blankenberg—for his professional shots and fast-moving pace.

Faculty and Administration—for patience and class time, when deadlines were soon to be met.

Mr. James Fisher—for his professional cover picture of the dunes.

Photographers—for following our requests of candid shots throughout the year.

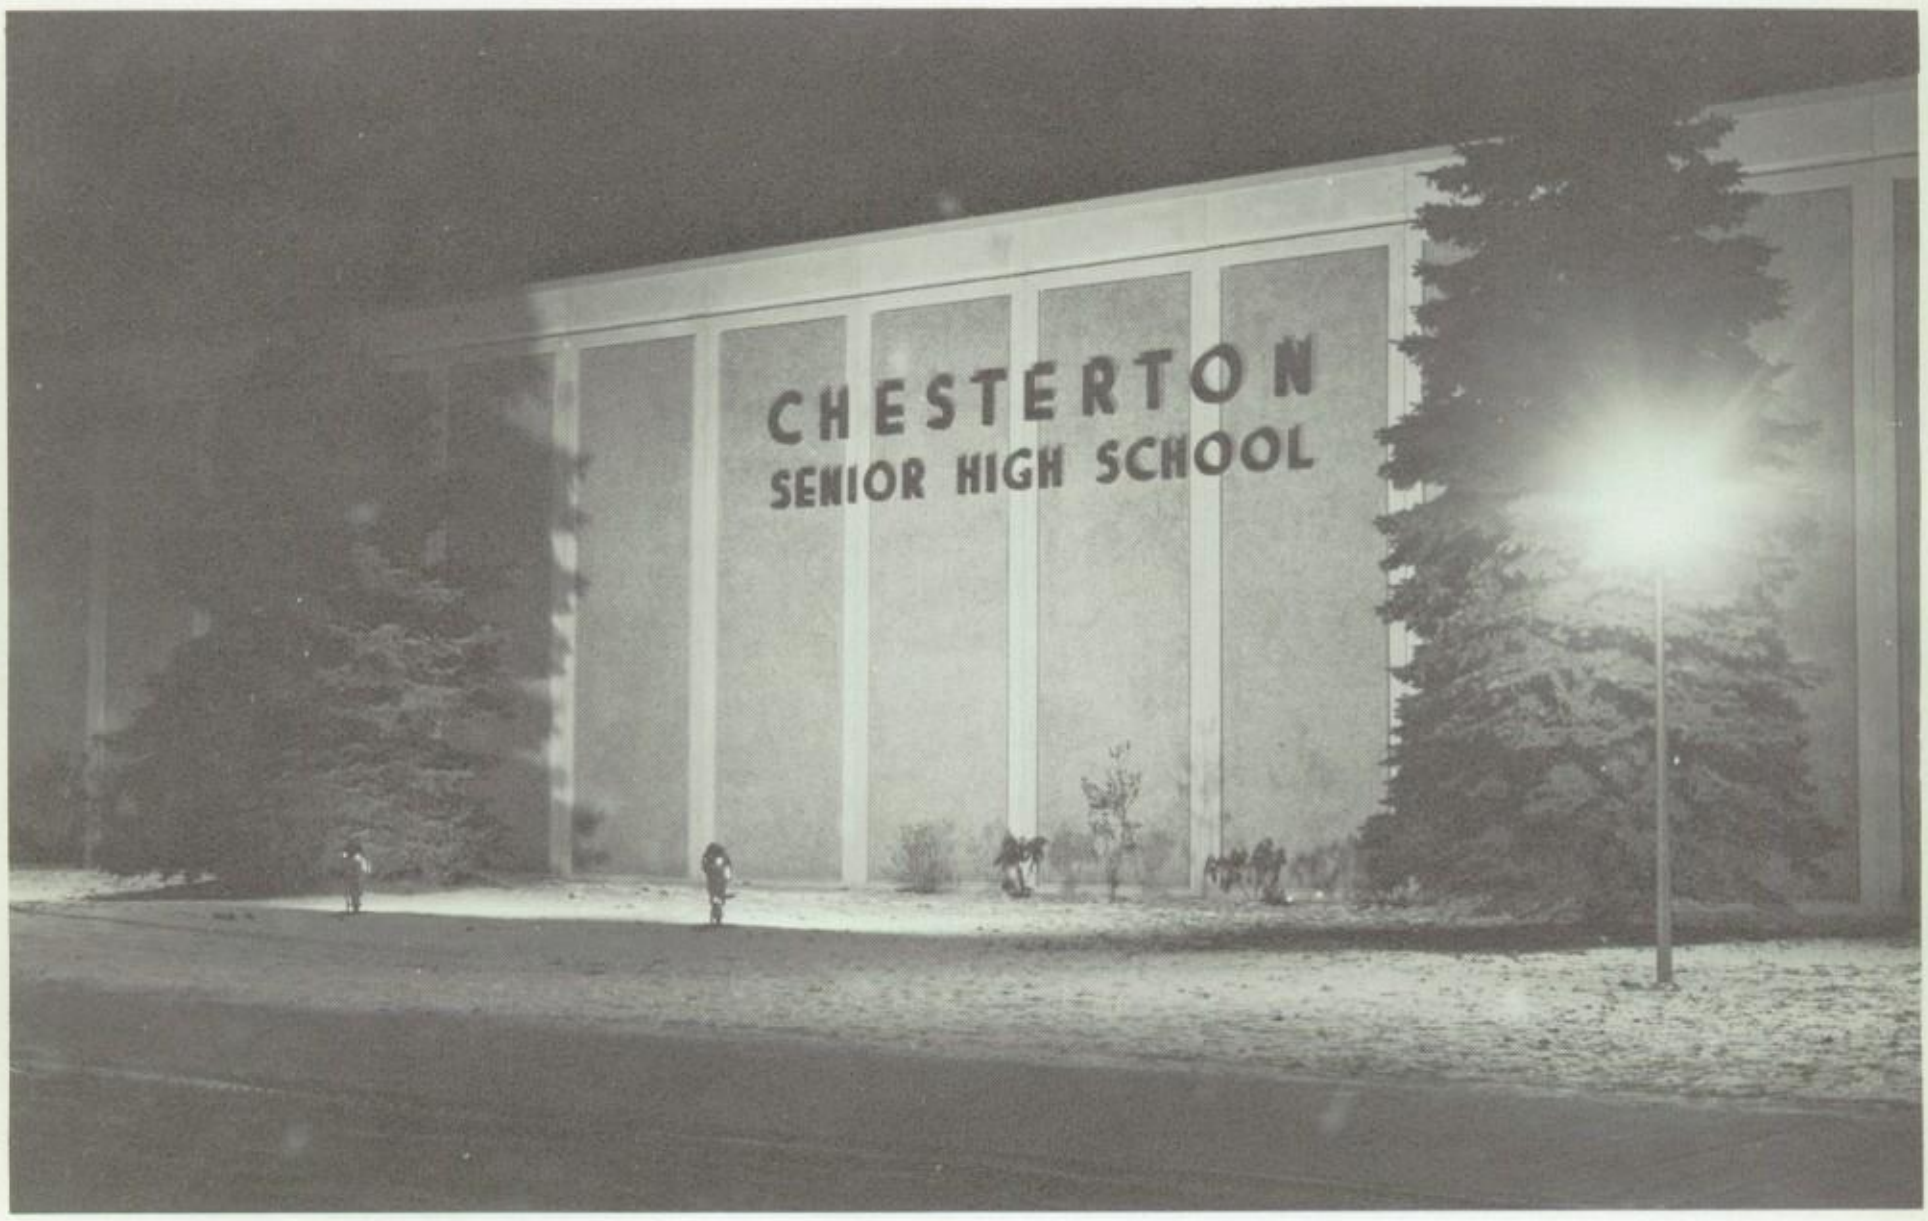
Most of all, Our Parents—for giving up Saturdays and cars for something important to all of us.

—Pam Whitton

CHS reigns forever in field of excellence

CHS gave students the light to carry and showed them the way through a successful year. Many new and old facets of learning and facilities backed them up as they discovered problems, searched for the solution, and solved them. New ideas and information challenged them to consider the best of their abilities and put them to use. Faculty and Administration were the resources, giving time and understanding to the questioning youth of today. Yet with all the quidance, the students showed independency with whatever they took upon themselves to accomplish.

CHS was the light, and as the light of CHS goes dim to afford another nights rest from the bustle and confusion of daily routine, CHS will continue to reign forever in its field of excellence.



Acknowledgements

Our thanks to: Paragon Yearbook Company, for publishing this book; Mrs. Janice Custer, for knowledgeable guidance; Mr. William Blankenberg and Mr. Gene Hayes, of Blankenberg Photographers, for the selection of the 1973 Yearbook Queen, many candid and group shots, Senior and underclass pictures; Mr. James Fisher of Chesterton, for his professional cover shot of the dunes; Mr. George Kingsley Jr., for company information; Industrial Arts Department for the use of equipment for making the design for the division pages; Chesterton Tribune, for photographic assistance; Photographers, for many extra nights spent at special events; Mr. Rod McKuen, for phrases of poetic instinct.

We HAD a Happy Day!

Specifications

The 1973 Singing Sands is a 9x12 summer delivery book published by Paragon Printers, Montgomery, Alabama. Pages 1-32 are printed on Satina paper. Normandy paper is used on pages 33-224; and endsheets are of Number 11 Maroon 60 per-cent. Captions feature Spartan Medium with Italics 8 points; body copy is 10 point; and Gothic Bold is used for headline type. Cover picture is by Mr. James Fisher, of Chesterton, and is lithographed in Number 11 Maroon. Division pages, design, and lettering are by CHS Drafting and Graphic Arts. Several different spot colors are used, and two four-color transparencies were taken by Mr. Gene Hayes and Mr. William Blankenberg of Blankenberg Photographers, Kankakee, Illinois.
